CITIES, LIKE LAFAYETTE,
HAVE BANNERS TO LET US KNOW WHERE WE ARE.

WE COULD HANG
PACKETS OF USEFULL
STUFF FOR PEOPLE TO HAVE.

COULD BE FOOD,
READING MATERIAL,
PENS + PAPER, GLOVES,
HATS

SO WE COULD ADD
CONTAINERS ONTO
TRASH RECEPTICALS
WHERE PEOPLE CAN DEPOSIT
REUSABLE STUFF.

Suggested SITES for PUBLIC PROJECTS:

- Bus + Trolley stops
- Empty Lots
- Parking areas: lots, garages
- Alleys
- Spaces between BUILDINGS
- Public plazas
- Public + outdoor Markets
- Along fences

SOME STRATEGIES:

- Hang things — like a pair of gym shoes thrown over phone lines. Attach paper projects like booklets, posters, drawings to string, bungee cords or wire... Then hang them from tree branches, telephone poles, connecting rods on bridges or buildings...
- Tie things around existing nature or architecture — use zip ties. Yarn, string to roll posters, flyers or utensils to signage, poles, trees
 - CLOTHING — ties itself around existing signage! Sweaters tied with the sleeves around a tree trunk
↳ a ghostly tree hugger.

HOW IT FUNCTIONS?

- READING MATERIAL FOR PEOPLE TO READ WHILE WAITING.
- WEIGH THE CURTAIN DOWN.
- KEEP EVERYTHING ORGANIZED.
